University Policies

Please Note: In accordance with the Department of Defense (DOD) all active duty military will receive BAS, BAH and Clothing Allowance with the exception of "O" rank service members and "W" warrant officers. You can view DOD's Web site at <https://mypay.dfas.mil/mypay.aspx> for further clarification.

BAH is, in effect, paid to all ranks. For example if you resided in the barracks or housing for all or part of 2008, your paycheck will not show a dollar amount for any housing allowance, nor will your LES (Leave and Earning Statement) show such an allotment. Nevertheless, you are required by federal regulations to include the "Cash Value" for such housing as part of your untaxed income. Anyone who changed pay grades during 2008 should prorate figures to derive the total BAH (i.e. E4 for 5 months X $$ plus E5 for 7 months X $$).

Students who received VHA in their BAQ should report the difference.

I certify that I have completed all questions and that the information submitted on this form is complete and accurate. I understand that if I purposely give false or misleading information on this document, I could be penalized with summary dismissal, fined up to $10,000, sent to prison or a combination of these.
